

Rally end in sight

Hi All,

Well Halloween has gone so that must mean that the rally has not many weeks left to run, hope you have all been having fun with it.

Don't forget to get your pictures to us by the 9th of December please make sure they are numbered to match the landmarks they appertain to, this can save us hours of work comparing them to our master pictures.

The Bacon butties morning will be on December the 9th all are welcome 10.00am to 4.00pm but we stop serving the butties at 12.30pm.

You now have till the 9th of December to get your pictures in to correspond with the bacon butty morning.

Our address is on the instruction sheet.

See you all then.

Anne & Mick.
